At Braye Gardens the emphasis is on living well with independence and peace of mind. Forming part of a brand new purpose built community of 56 units for residents 55 years and over, these well-located high-spec homes offer convenience and practicality with a sense of privacy and independence centred around beautiful, landscaped grounds. Each apartment benefits from being entirely lateral, with full lift access to all floors. There is dedicated parking for each home in addition to guest spaces for your family and friends to visit without compromise. At the heart of the community is a communal meeting space for all residents to share experiences and activities with like-minded residents. Braye Gardens offers a new lease on life.
