Rozel House is a traditional detached Georgian townhouse situated in a good residential location in St. Peter Port. The property is a PART D registered house of multiple occupancy and offers flexible accommodation with five bedrooms (potentially more), set out over three floors. Externally, the house sits on a large plot, mainly laid to lawn, along with a garage, workshop and parking for numerous vehicles. Furthermore, there is lapsed planning approval to add a sun room, two further bedroom suites and a detached double garage. This elegant house is in a convenient St. Peter Port location and would make a great investment.
