POA OPEN MARKET, ST. PETER PORT

Tides is an exceptionally rare, front-line Fort George property offering commanding and uninterrupted views from the East Coast to the islands beyond. This stunning property is not only a comfortable residence as it stands, but it also comes with approved planning permissions, providing an extraordinary opportunity to create one of the finest Open Market homes in Guernsey.

Currently configured over two floors, the abundantly light accommodation features vast reception rooms ideally placed to encompass the breathtaking views, along with five generously sized bedroom suites. Each principal room opens onto terracing, providing seamless access to the outdoors and enhancing the connection to its stunning surroundings. The potential for expansion is immense, with planning permissions already in place that will enable development of the site with bespoke living spaces tailored to the requirements of the most discerning purchasers.

Externally, the property occupies a larger-than-average...
