£1,195,000 LOCAL MARKET, ST. PETER PORT

Tucked behind gates on the Western outskirts of St. Peter Port lies The Woodshed, an exquisite and progressive property that has been constructed to an exceptional standard. As the gates open, the parking area is revealed with space for multiple vehicles and lawned garden - bounded by mature hedging that leads your eye to the front door and Western terrace. Once in a while, you see a new-build space that represents progression - making living spaces more ergonomic, taking abundant natural light to new levels and applying a level of finish that would not look out of place in an International design magazine. The materials used have been carefully curated with blonde woods, pale polished plaster and porcelain finishes that sit alongside exposed brick walls - seamlessly linking the external and internal elevations, separated by high-quality glazing and inset atrium openings to take full advantage of light. Ground floor accommodation comprises entrance with hidden storage, stunning...
